IN DEDICATION

To three men, each of whom has given over a quarter of a century of service to Montana State is this book dedicated.

Dr. W. P. Clark came to MSU in 1921 as assistant professor of foreign languages, teaching French and Latin. Later he served as chairman of the classical language department, and after 1946 was Dean of the Graduate school. He also taught in Kansas, Texas, New York, and at William and Mary. Dean Clark spent ten months at the University of Mont Pelier in France and received his Ph.D. from the University of Chicago. He has written for classical journals and now writing for educational magazines, he has enough writing and editing to keep him busy for some time.

Relinquishing his position as Chairman of the modern language department in September, 1952, Dr. B. E. Thomas retired after completing 29 years on the faculty of MSU. In 1901 when the first group of American teachers went to the Philippines, Dr. Thomas was one of the 800 to make the trip. He remained on the islands until 1910. Before beginning his work at the Butte School of Mines, he received his Ph.D. from the University of Wisconsin in 1935. At MSU Dr. Thomas became chairman of the modern language department and for some time headed the International Education committee and also the committee in charge of Foreign Students on Campus.

After spending his entire career at this University, J. B. Speer retired from the faculty in July, 1952. Though he finished in law at the University of Michigan, MSU is also Mr. Speer's alma mater. A very active student here, he was editor of the Sentinel in 1908 and served as Kaimin business manager. Mr. Speer took his first position as a member of the faculty at MSU when in 1908 he became secretary to the President and to the Registrar. He held this post until 1912 and later returning to MSU in 1917, he continued as secretary. In 1920 Mr. Speer was advanced to the position of Registrar and Business Manager and in 1945 he became controller for the University, a position he held until last year.

SUMMER

Twenty other 1962 graduates and graduate and undergraduate finished spring break students and teachers alike returned to MSU for a summer of study, conferences, workshops, and fun.

MSU Writers Conference brought many well-known authors to the campus between July 30 and August 4. Headlining them were Van Wyck Brooks, Pulitzer Prize winner, Orestes Davidson, High Wide and Handsome author, and Ode White, magazine and fiction writer. Dorothy Arnsperg, formerly of the Woman's magazine, now news editor for the Whistler Pilot was another celebrated conference member who spoke on magazine fiction writing.

Norman A. Fox, featured speaker, lectured on Joseph Kinsley Howard, author of Montana, High Wide, and Handsome. Dr. Leslie A. Fiedler, who attended the conference after spending a year in Rome, was honored

During summer session in July, three Hollywood stars visited the MSU campus. Robert Wagner, star of "What Price Glory," Donna Reed, star of "Saturday's Kids," and David Diamond, independent producer and screen writer, were on a good will tour from Hollywood. They answered questions presented to them by townspeople and University students about the movie industry.

Warm August weather brought a receptive audience to hear the 75-piece band composed of Music Camp students under the direction of University Band Director Justin Gray. The other section of Music camp that performed for the public was a 52-voice choir led by Lloyd Oakland.

Professor Orl A. Roe demonstrates the art of tape recording to a few of the 100 high school students who attended the summation Row-Wow held between July 27 and August 2. These high school seniors will be responsible for their respective school newspapers and yearbooks for the school year 1952-53. In addition to publishing the Camp Crier and the Summer Session Sun, under the direction of Prof. E. B. Dugan, Row-Wow members enjoyed many recreational activities such as sports, dances, and picnics with Music camp students.

These elected members from the summer's Music Campers form a dance band led by Paul Abel, instructor of music. Here they join in a lifting arrangement of "Pender's." From July 27 to August 5 one hundred and five high school music students from all over the state worked under the direction of Professor Stanley M. Tye.

Election Year Raises

FALL QUARTER FEVER

We won! We won! Carrying out the MSJ tradition of ringing the bell in Main Hall after an athletic victory, freshmen try and pull on the clapper rope to let it ring. Participants and by-standers are (below)

ORIENTATION WEEK HECTIC AS EVER

LIKE CAMPAIGN LEAFLETS caught in a whirlwind, ward 510 freshmen hustled around the campus for pamphlets, lectures and social meetings and parties. These newbies had to adjust hard with only a few spare moments left each day in which to get homework. It was almost too tight.

Emergency women met upper classmen (above) at the guidance-

RUSH ENLIVENED Orientation week even more. Fraternities pledged 134 men with the Phi Delta taking the lead with 34 men and Sigma Nu was second with 26 men. Sororities claimed 176 women in their first year with Alpha Phi taking 38 and Delta Gamma bringing 26.

The freshmen seemed a little uncooperative at first when the pointing of the M was left unfinished. With another try and some more time, however, they finally completed the upperclassmen to announce the job satisfactory. Temporarily class officers were elected. Jim Abbott became president, Robert Reader vice president, and Nancy Schilling, secretary-treasurer.

John Abbott became Central Board director. In their junior election, 91 more freshmen voted this year than last.

For the first time freshmen were required to fill out college interest cards to determine in which clubs and organizations they might be most happy. Some of the most energetic freshmen started yet another activity group, the Grizzly Graders, headed by Arnold Papp. The Fox Club worked closely with Triathlon board. During Orientation week, first year were required to take physical examination. Thanks for the ROTC program.

HOMECOMING

EVENTFUL DAY ENTERTAINS ALUMS

ABOUT 500 ALUMNI gathered at the campus for the fifth annual Homecoming. Saturday they took in a family reunion attraction, the Homecoming parade, a basketball and the MSU-BYU football game. The classes of 1902 and 1927 were honored. After the game (BYU 23, MSU 7), receptions, open football and an informal dance ended the festivities. Because so little time was available to prepare for Homecoming, representatives did not put up house decorations. Instead they helped the students build the floats. Delta Delta Delta and Sigma Alpha Epsilon won the trophies for the best float which represented a pair of deer. No trophy was given for the best school float this year because not enough schools entered. Queen Kay of Rapid City, S. D., was crowned during the half time. One of the floats, decorated by Kappa Kappa Gamma and Phi Sigma Kappa (above) depicts the married classes. Past and queen candidates, Barbara Pence, 1952, Elsie Anderson, 1927 (unidentified) and 1902, Barbara Berg

TOPPED BY SADIE HAWKINS

A HIGHLIGHT in the fall social was the Sadie Hawkins dance. Midland's clubs and new stories written in Dogpatch-vernacular attracted widespread attention. Rosemary Allen, object paired with Frank Norberg to help sell tickets. A bubble blowing contest follows entertained the crowd during intermission.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON before the storming came, freshmen gathered cardboard and wood for the bonfire that night. A parade led by the Saxon band, and Bear Fawn, followed by the team riding in convertibles and auto-riding students, gathered around the bonfire for a pep rally (right) led by Yell King, Gertie Hoyt.

BEVERLY HENNE brought you around on Dad's day to F. J. Hardenburgh, 67, as the titled student to S. C. Smithson, of Eugene, Oregon as the dad who traveled the farthest. As the dad arrived on campus Friday morning, they saw a parade parade-line pep rally. Saturday morning, Saxon led the boys in runs of the campus. Saturday afternoon the Gophers played the Redcats and won 13 to 12. That evening the Miners played for a dance at the Told room.

THE ATMOSPHERE was permeated with official news and official and unofficial ceremonies. When Ike's train stopped at the H.P. depot, hundreds of townspeople and students turned out to greet him and to hear his quiet Sunday morning speech. He avoided politics that night. Citizens put two groups, the Young Republicans, and the Young Democrats, came up and discussions in classes after school by the club officers. It became more heated than usual.

FALL HIGHLIGHTS

STAGING THE FIRST concert of the year, MU's music society, Kappa and Omega, kept an audience entertained for an hour with music and wit. Some of the high spots at the program were a duet with Pat Korb singing "I Came to Your Wedding," the quartet musical version of the song, the quartet singing "Old Sam," and a political rally (parody) concerning "Deacon." The President of the United States, Korb, and Omega, too. (Left to right) Gary Frey, Pinky McCullie, Don Egan, Neil McCurdy, Jerry Mitchell, Pete Deacon, Doug "Deacon" Anderson, Kay Huber, Pat Fisher, George Bickelstein, Pat Korb, Lee Russell, Gordon Davis, Jim Lammert, and Dennis Landon. The organization pulled a few more stunts during fall and winter but by spring it seemed to be fading away.

DR. MURIEL R. LORAN plans to use a $16,000 Kato grant to continue her research laboratory. With this machine she worked in some tumor research. Grants totaling more than $16,000 have been made to Dr. Loran, an assistant professor in physiology, for her work. The grants come from the Damon Runyon Memorial Fund and the American Cancer Society.

WINTER BROUGHT REALIZATION OF PLANS

AFTER TWO MONTHS of student debate and voting, George Hays, Assembly member, the author of the bill, the bill building his proposal, the Field House. The building would have been 100 feet by 200 feet with a corner space of 200 feet by 100 feet. Large enough to hold six of the most physical buildings, it would accommodate as many as 5,000 persons for basketball games and 1,000 for concerts or shows. The building was not meant to be used only for athletic purposes, but was designed for social and entertainment purposes. 4000 departments, the athletic department, the Field Service division, and the Alumni Office would be housed in this building. Planning that Student Union building for and the removal of the present athletic administration from the Student Activity for the next 20 years in order to get back behind later, students voted 544 to 176 for the Field House. Before ground was broken, four well known men began construction with the student body about 100,000 in the Student Union with the Field House. After considerable debate and voting, the removal of the building was definitely agreed to the plan.

MRS. GEORGE GOSMAN of the student body, among the most active in the building, has now been elected to the position of Secretary. George Gosman, who is the author of the bill, and the author of the bill, presented a bill to the student body. The bill was passed.

Winter Weekends Wore Well

WITH THE BIG PARTIES

BANK NITE SHARK. Fred Murray (center) joined partners as times went up and down and various bank partners kept the money multiplying. On the gambling side of the bank are Don Wolf, Jim Harris, an unidentified Darryl Mulvey and Jerry Smith.

THE MUSIC SCHOOL'S 1939 and 1940 term 1938 term featured the double "Jazz Weekend" that was about two other years. Six hundred students danced to the music of the Music School while flower girls held spears and other modified jazz-like events. From the Saturday night affair went into the coffee of musicians and fund of the Music School Foundation. The program was produced and directed by John Jones of the Music School.

SINGING WAITERS. Freshman vocal quartet. (right) Dan Sorenson, Lewis Kline, Tom Sumner, and Bob Spawell, held a long note at the Nite Club dance. The quartet mixes strong ten and soprano and filled the air with melody at the Music school's invitation.

SPONSORED BY ARNOLD AIR SOCIETY. Scholars and those seeking titles and Spanish Credits. The Military drill was the work for dancing, tapping new members and a short drill by the Pershing Rifle. Captain Earl Porter congratulated a new member and his wife (right) while Dick Jay proposed to someone (center). Bill Denberg was in charge of the Pershing Rifle drill.

NEVER CEASING in activities at night, the music school students and faculty gave recitals. Professor Eugene Andrieu, conducting conductor, (right) went through a tough practice session in the hall before his recital. He was accompanied by his wife.

NOT PENNIES have crossed but minted from the bottom of the Moxie game the name of the smallest Forester's Ball. About 100 students watched the game. Hyster and two men of experience caught. The game's action was full and exciting instead of the usual two because the student body was smaller.

RECOVERED BY THE FORESTERS from the garage of a law student, old ramshackle "Bertha" is eventually returned to his proper place in the Foresters' shop. Helping to produce this outcome are Jim Huggins, Dave Knutson, Neil Peterson, Bill McQuill and Matt McNamara. Foresters claim "Bertha" is the largest mouse house in these parts.

FORESTER'S BALL WELL ATTENDED

"MAN, CAN I USE THIS!" once shouted Art Holzweissig as he intercepts an electric mixer from Rust Finkner at the Forester's Ball. The mixer is given as a first prize for the best bowl of four collected over a three month period preceding the Ball.

POUNDING THE RICKEY-TICK joins in George Stahl who "let loose" with the old time stuff in the Forester's "Bar." Surrounding him Jim Pfusch and Doyle Tork.

PAUL BUNYAN'S PRODIGES were out 'en masse for the pre-Forester's Ball mixer. Starting late in late January. Designed to celebrate the Ball, the mixer followed songs and songs by the women and the usual action directed toward the Weyer. Some of the talent shown here along with old "Buster" (James Smith) are: Don O'Grady, Ralph Hermsberger, Dennis Swift, George Jones, Jack Oremwiler, Phil Hansen, Don Lantz, Bob Erickson, Dave Williams, Arthur Frank, Ray Jones, Don Joe, Fred, Paul, Edna, Art Hammer, Jack Lewis, Jack Hutzinger, Allen Meckel, Jerry Taylor, Duane Tork, Dick Fount, Mr. John Krier, Jim Pfusch, Ted Rieger and Art Holzweissig.

STUDENTS FOUND VARIETY

SOMETHING DIFFERENT in the way of a party, the annual business club March came off with games, dancing and a program for ingenuity on the part of the living groups. The ever popular Theta sponge dance (left) put Shirley Spence in an uncomfortable position.

CROWNED in March Dance queen and king were Betty Hunt, Kappa Alpha Theta, and Bill Gray, Sigma Chi. Looking on were Grace Dornstreich, Synagogue president, and Van Olm, Phi Sigma Kappa president.

A black and white photograph capturing a lively social gathering, likely a dance or party, in a room with a simple interior. A large group of young people, mostly in their late teens or early twenties, are engaged in dancing. The dancers are dressed in mid-20th-century attire; men are wearing light-colored, short-sleeved shirts and dark trousers, while women are in light-colored, knee-length dresses or skirts. The room features a doorway in the background and a patterned rug on the floor. The overall atmosphere is one of a casual, fun event.

MUSIC AND ENTERTAINMENT And a little called Napoleon's Mother brought early 12-worshiping all-legend to the Best Film awarded Film Bowl. Best Film award given, wearing broad costume, spiced in keeping with the modern color and paintings and draped out. Harry Keatts got the month. Lynda Farnell, Ralph Brantly, Bob Brown, George C. Scott and John House were a major presence in the night life.

ABER DAY BECOMES USEFUL

Aber training under faculty and participants gave Aber day a new lease on life this year. Field planning by chairman, Bob Graves, and work committee head, Don Jackson, kept the work moving smoothly. After McVynell's state report is being rapidly shown with fair and friendly aid.

Planting grass was a job tackled by four teams. This above. While Don Nyquist and Tom Hansen take soil from the seed. BUT STILL FUN

In the afternoon rough and tumble. After day contests were traditionally in order. Some of the boys missed part of the two dollar ball stop the ground game. In the initial scramble—white jumps were still white—Eck McDonald caught the ball by a length on the line. After a ten-minute free-for-all, Quentin Marino reached the money with the support of two pals.

Justice was also dealt to five defendants at High Court. Anderson was sentenced to the water trough for belonging to a "sustainable organization." Kane and Dodge-Bey Hume was released on the same charge. The trough was poured Dan Limbino and Bob Nowlin for (1) dragging the Snake River boys to the campus, and (2) putting to rest away the athlete's financial support. Kenneth Oregment was charged with making "false" claims and was sentenced to wear a pair of blind lamps around her neck.

The court was slow in starting due to interception of the five judges taking their time from the Law school to the "bench" by a group of foresters. Gene Tibbitt, High Court boss, was complimented on the higher caliber of humor displayed at the court.

It wouldn't be Aber day without pie eating contests. In the men's competition (below) Doc Orlich (below) the team (unofficial) took top honors. The two lost in the berry creations are unidentified but they are being cheered by M. J. (above), Bob Hudson and several small boys.

In the more eventful women's contest, marked by a full-face mustard hit on an M club member, Bette Roe White and Katherine Heller were pronounced as winners.

AFTER LUNCH (right) nearly every student went to the first After day variety show. The auditorium was packed and very few left till the two-hour show was over. Twelve acts kept the house laughing and applauding. Best two of the acts were the Delta Gamma-Sigma film production, "My Gun Won't Even Work" which was a satire on Mickey Spillane's works with Bob Lazich starring as Mike Hammer, and the Cordus-New hall skit depicting different Coke store scenes.

The grand finale laid 'em in the aisles with George Hummel playing a duck call as one of the "Bake Saver" boys. Twelve faculty members in sand-con costumes spiritedly wound up the show.

More of the lawn raking was completed by coeds (below) this year while the men planted lawns and did repair work. Facing the camera are Corbin Porter, Georgia George, Kay Hudson and Marlene Cresely.

Chow time found everyone ready and waiting.

With the men working elsewhere, coeds finished the raking in short order.

TRACK MEET INTERMISSION, NO LETUP FOR COLLEGIANS

UNIVERSITY STUDENTS were kept busy during Intercollegiate week by either entertaining the high school students, refereeing their competitions or accommodating them with interesting. An SOS (left) put collegians in the spirit of Track Meet on Thursday evening. Friday began the competition of students from 1100 Montana high school in events ranging from track and field contests to golf, tennis, speech, debate and newspaper work. Meanwhile, the Intercollegiate committee and alumni put the finishing touches on their displays, not only to compete for the prize but to picture by advertisement what MSU is best. Alpha Phi (below) expended their Wizard of Oz theme to decorate MSU.

With the Bibler Bounce, its an evening in a dance and a little unprecedented wing, then toward the Great Falls, all have band to provide "extra music" and a variety. A group of students took advantage of the opportunity for fun. Kappa Kappa Gamma, Elsie Anderson was elected Frodo, John Koster, professor of music, was elected Gandalf and Jerry Murphy was elected Wizard.

The band, which began with the sweet and sentimental Beverly Plume, played "Tossing a Coin to a Fair Stranger" called Frodo, Gandalf and Wizard to the forefront at intermission time.

Payoff for a hard year of study and drilling are the awards given at the last review.

SPRING ENDS IN

ABOUT 95 STUDENTS received honors at the last ROTC review. Bill Rife (left) received an outstanding air cadet medal and a handshake from Colonel Porter. During spring quarter, colorful reviews with the ROTC students, the ROTC band and the Glee Club were staged each Monday from 5 to 6 p.m.

Like so many months of dinners and parties, there will given for graduating seniors by underclassmen. The kids who hang around the main floor of the Union (the new room or cafeteria) gave a dinner, planned and prepared by Walter D'Connell, for the seniors who hang around the Union. FESTIVITIES

ONE OF THE FEW purely traditional traditions of MSU is the lantern parade for senior women. Underclassmen (right) arrived early to unfold these lanterns and to be sure their candles would burn. Among them are Rosemary Coates, Joyce Pikkala, Cynthia Brown, Mary Ann Kuder, Carlene Dragotoff, Janet Thorsen, Kathleen Booth, Darlene Murray, Patricia Kest, Janet Tierney and Alice Mawata.

They impress us as the professors and deans in their black robes and strikingly colored hoods. Like bright, plumed birds, they adorn themselves with tassels and a trail of vanity. It's enough to make a plain-colored graduate envious.

Underclassmen prepare for lantern parade.

Faculty members were colorful on Graduation day.

UNIVERSITY GRADUATES 327 ON PLEASANT, COOL DAY

MSU contributed 327 of the nation's 300,000 college graduates in spring 1953 and granted 21 master's degrees. Commencement exercises were more enjoyable this year than last because the day was pleasantly cool with a thin overcast. The procession, however, began at Main hall, going almost the rest of the afternoon to the oval and then down the walk to the west end of the new Administration building to the Student Union building.

The keynote of the University of Michigan, Joseph M. Calver, gave the Baccalaureate address. A speaker wasn't scheduled for commencement because it would make the ceremony too long. Bigger moments I might come when family and friends were present, pictures were taken, boys were pinned, kisses given and hands shook. Looking forward to some four more years of college, a job, marriage, travel or the army beyond that, it's a happy moment to live through.

Stan Kenton's "Innovations"

NAME BANDS FREQUENT IN '52 -- '53

Henry Busse

Stan Kenton with his "Innovations" (above) was the first name band to bring a concert into the home, a fact made all more and broadcast over NBC and all parts. Kenton's band attracted a full house.

Henry Busse (left) had been in the "C" class of the A.M.A. for years, and in the meantime, his 16 pieces were continuously being recorded for radio-based regions. The "Band of Renown" (below) played in a few more places. All of a sudden, some engagement. What was made up the Brown band and the other bands who had an engagement with Henry Busse. There was a lot of work and work and the Blue Band was first last for years and years.

Henry Busse appeared in New York with his band of all including the "Innovations" the Musical Knights (James Smalley, Rudy Brown, etc.). On the same night, the "Innovations" received first place for her singing, Jack Miller (saxophone), second place, and Eleanor Fox and Louis Kline third place for their vocal part.

FOREIGN STUDENTS

While MSU strives to keep Montana students in Montana, many people from all over the world carry on their studies through scholarships and independently on MSU campus. Pictured above are ten of these students who participated in MSU's educational program during 1952-53.

Joseph, from Brack, Yugoslavia, who attended school in Great Falls. A pharmacy graduate this year, he was a member of Kappa Psi, pharmacy fraternity organization.

Edward, the only married student of the ten, came to MSU from Taguigan, Philippine Islands. He graduated from here in modern languages and is now becoming a U. S. citizen.

Gwethalyn helped her father manage a little home in Cordoba, Argentina, before he came to Montana. Hoping to become a writer, she will take her newly learned methods and come back to South America.

Doreen, an English major from Athens, Greece, will be remembered for her outstanding stories published in Venture.

Liv, a chemistry major from Oslo, Norway, was also a member of the MSU women's ski team.

Maria, from Lima, Peru, majored in business administration. Her bright smile at the cash register greeted cake store patrons throughout the year.

Kathleen, from Antigua, British West Indies, planned to proceed. Her ambition is to become a doctor and return to her native country to practice.

Gwethalyn from Orem, France, spent a quarter as an assistant teacher in the modern language department. She received a scholarship to further this work at UCLA next year after receiving both her B.A. and M.A. from MSU.

Claude, another French girl from Nice, was an English major at MSU. She received a scholarship from Cleveland, Ohio, which will enable her to remain in the States another year.

Magda, from Mexico City, Mexico, is completing her degree by correspondence. Although majoring in business administration, she studied in the physical education department. Magda, an Olympic swimmer, was both star and conductor of the (Y) swimming program.

WINDED FROM RUNNING around the football field rather than the distant proposed building site, the Alpine Rams and Flang began overtop Dr. Carl McFarland's Main Hall after during a Friday night Central board meeting concerning the Field House Student Union merger. KAY HUDSON broke the laughter with "The Mustangs was more like that!" DOUG "DEACON" ANDERSON followed with "I never thought it would take long work." DANNY LAMBROS ended the term with uncontrolled laughter, but the day was saved by Bill Jones, who quipped, "Where have you been?" DOUG BEIGHLE completed the water-tight planned dialogue with "We've put term in the proposed site of the new Field House Student Union." The meeting, accompanied by a planted photographer, Seldon Beck, departed.

SKI CLUB

SKI FANS had a chance to cash in on some bargains when the ski club held their auction. Used ski equipment of all kinds was gathered together and sold to the highest bidder. Going to Whitefish for a ski weekend in January was also sponsored by the ski club. Many students at MSU saved their money so that they could take in the big ski weekend.

MAY WE THANK

All those who volunteered their services in the production of this book. Those who graciously gave us information for copy when we requested it sometime between 3 p.m. and 11 p.m.

BOB CATLIN who contributed the pictures appearing on pages 4, 12, 13, 14, 15 and the space pictures. McKAY STUDIO for pictures on page 4.

The STUDENT UNION BUSINESS OFFICE that not only helped to keep us on line financially, but cheerfully fixed our typewriters and submitted us to their office when we forgot our keys.

The NIGHT WATCHMEN who tolerated our late hours, and CYRILE VAN DUSER who let us place the book up as we wished but who worried and worried with us at the end.

With special thanks PAT THOMAS and MURIEL GRIFFIN for the tremendous amount of effort they put forth for this yearbook and to tell you of the staff at the end of this (final) year.

Armstrong Engraving Company represented by BOB LINDBORG and HOWARD VIERLING for their swift suggestions and acceptance of a tight schedule. Reporter Printing Company represented by BILL REMINGTON and FRANK CROSS for their concern and realism in layout. Kingsport Press represented by GEORGE BARBERS for a new lower priced and development of an idea.

DANNY LAMBROS

DON CAMERON

ASMSU POLITICIANS

ASMSU PRESIDENT DANNY LAMBROS AND BUSINESS MANAGER DON CAMERON led the student body through a controversy-filled year and left their offices with increased experience. Big issues of the year were the Field House proposal and election when student activity funds were obligated to the extent of $25,000 for the next thirty years. Danny's bargaining over the issue resulted in delays and conflicts with Stan Kenton, Les Brown, Henry Busse, and the Snake River Boys. The biggest impetus of the two administrations included presence and participation at Central Board, Athletic Board, and Social Standards Committee. Don was chairman of Budget and Finance which oversaw the apportionment of student funds.

Danny and Don worked with Central Board in assuring the spending of money to increase student interest and participation in activities rather than leaving the money on loan into the general fund. Don and Danny talked to a conference of student leaders in Lima and thus began a series of student trips to other confabs. The officers were always eager to discuss student body problems with interested students and helped make the yearly ASMSU office a fun-house. The two also promoted their careers as interns in the summer. Both are members of Sigma Tau social fraternity, Sigma Gamma, and Alpha Kappa Psi. Danny is a law student and member of Phi Delta Phi, Kappa and Omega, and Student Christian Association. Sample lectures were given out by Don who is a member of the Debate team, Tau Kappa Alpha, Phi Sigma, and Wesley Foundation.

HAZEL-EYED MARY JOAN TASCHER faithfully took the mantle of Central board and as ADMSU Secretary did her part in leading them this year and last through the year of student activity. Mary Joan was awarded a number of scholarships and will be doing graduate work at Bryn Mawr College in Pennsylvania.

ACTIVE JAMIE BRENNAN, independent of ADMSU, guided the social committee with the help of the great department of living groups. She is past president of Sigma and Kappa Kappa Gamma and former Sweetheart of Sigma Chi. Jamie and Bob Graydon plan to marry this winter.

ASMSU PUBLIC SERVANTS

OUTSIDE ENTERTAINMENT COMMITTEE cooperated with the Community Concert Association and brought Vivian Della Chiesa, Iga Gurn, the Gershwin Concert Orchestra, and the Longme Symphony to the campus. Back: Bill Jones, co-chairman Harry Bunker, Maurice Lokenborg, and John Boyd. Middle: Cecelia Ullman, Beverly Hoffman, Myrna Delven, Laura Shuck, and Jane Valt. Front: Pat O'Connor, co-chairman Ann Fowler, Georgia George, and Donalee Wheelberger.

CONVOCACTIONS COMMITTEE obtained speakers and scheduled the year's convocation entertainment which included the Kappa and Delta songs before the MSU-MSC game, a Sirkema program, and the annual Foresters' Jamboree. Standing: John Lester, Cyril Van Dusen, Dr. Luther Kottman, Robert Struckman, Henry Loren, and Edmund Freeman. Seated: Paul Hansen, Dorothy Ross, Virginia Hays, chairman Gene Teltak, and Bernard Bergstad.

SOCIAL COMMITTEE planned the social calendar for the year and tried keeping all the phrase books and content with their function dates. Members include: Bill Burke, Carlo Wetzstein, Maurice Lokenborg, chairman James Brennan, and Mary Loximbe, not pictured.

M BOOK COMMITTEE edited the M Book, "Your Key to the Campus," which included rates for lunch, a roster of student officers, trustees of MSU, phone numbers and addresses of living groups, and university administration. The committee consisted of Skulom Max, Joan Beckman, and Jim Ford. Not pictured were Maime Muhlman and chairman Wally Hartlage.

TRADITIONS BOARD, one of the busiest committees in campus, started this year by restoring new traditions. The group planned 205's, sponsored the painting of the M. Club in the apartment of freshmen. Homecoming, Daffy Day, and Alibi Day, had the first Blood Boasted, and initiated the Robert Schley award.

ATHLETIC BOARD discussed the possible elimination of jockey, basketball, and M. Club basketball. They passed the budget and became involved in questions about the M. Club's interest in basketball games. The board sponsored the 2nd game for the first time and increased the frequency of basketball from ten to twelve. They dealt with $115,000 and tried to spread it over six years. Standing: Ray Ashby, Bob Fraser, Don Cameron, and Kirk Badgley. Seated: Mary Joan Tascher, chairman Don Lombros, Harry Adams. Not pictured: Bill McMinn.

BUDGET AND FINANCE COMMITTEE kept a most active role in campus population, percentages of distribution of activities, while planning, not the remaining general fund. Planning the 1953-54 financial schedule took much of their time. The committeemen were slightly busy with the planning of the year and tried those of the past and were expected to give money to financing student groups and causes. Standing: Tom VanMeter, Kirk Badgley, chairman Don Cameron, and Byron Robb. Seated: Patricia Wicks and Shirley DeFay. Not pictured: Herbert Wunderlich.

PUBLICATIONS BOARD held the power over ASME publications, Reports, Journal, and the newly started Venture magazine. They examined the whole and part of the publications and helped keep them efficient. Standing: John Brooks, Jerry Murphy, Chris Anderson, Jim Ryan, and Helen Jackson. Seated: Cybil Van Dine, chairman Jerry Swan, Edward Dumas, and Herbert Wunderlich.

NEW STUDENT UNION COMMITTEE, a part of Student Union Executive Board, was re-born this year and investigated various student union plans. The members met with faculty leaders and discussed needed and desired facilities. They helped vote the Field House-Student Union merger and showed independence in studying plans and proposed locations. In order to make more practical plans the committee polled public opinion. Standing: Boyd Baldwin, Ann Walsh, chairman Peder Hansen, Georgia George, Doug Anderson, Barbara Sheffels, and Dave Leutholtz. Seated: Janice Weatherston, Dorothy Reeves, Mary Mathen, Dorina Bender, and Ruth Buzzetti.

PUBLICITY TRAVEL COMMITTEE was one of the units charged with the responsibility of increasing the flow of information from the University to high school students and other Alameda citizens. Hand in hand with Andy Cogswell and the Public Service Division the group allotted money to representatives at large who travel and meet potential recruits. Campus musicians added greatly to the message and the future enrollment. Standing: Keith Terrell, chairman Doug Baughle, and Jack Streeten. Seated: Dorina Bar and Virginia Hays. Not pictured: Andy Cogswell, former chairman Dave Leutholtz, Norman Sherlock, Tom Sherlock, and Len Smith.

SOCIAL STANDARDS COMMITTEE met infrequently during the year to discuss campus and student interests, and to look into individual cases. The number of meetings was an indication of a well-balanced student body. Standing: Chairman Dr. Gordon Browder, Herbert Wunderlich, and Dr. John Stewart. Seated: Carol Craven, Ann Platt, Agnes Stradley, Maurine Crow, and Millie Lee. Not pictured: Don Lombros and Don Cameron.

PRESIDENT MOLLIE ILER handled the problems of AWS with gentle hands and kept things rolling smoothly. Mollie went to the Western Regional convention in Berkeley, California and had her state meet in Pullman, Washington. As a result of the trip, four new committees were instituted.

VEEP JARY NELSEN was in charge of the Judicial Board which wrote a new up-to-date set of rules. Jary handled the rule revision committee for the campus Handbook and worked on the AWS constitution.

SECRETARY MARILYN KINTNER passed notices of those to whom campuses were granted and took minutes at the meetings. Carol Weststrom and Ruby Lindstrom helped out during fall quarter after which Marilyn finished the job.

TREASURER MARILYN FOSTER kept track of the bills and their payment. Thanks to budget-conscious Marilyn, AWS didn't run in the red. As president for next year she will continue to be active in AWS.

ASSOCIATED WOMEN STUDENTS

ASSOCIATED WOMEN STUDENTS worked with Miss Clow, Associate Dean of Students, in formulating and enforcing rules for women students. The activities for the year included a retreat at Montana Power park and for the Missoula mothers sharing in the tea for freshmen women, the Lantern parade, running under women directed by Patsy Lively, the handbook "Carol Cool" by Davis Nelson, the pig-little wine program planned by Miss Joan Towler, and a bash at the Mardi Gras. There were many long discussions over the giving of campuses, and a session over the future of the Miss Montana program. The picture in issue of continuing the pageant lost out. Back: Janet Olson, Pat O'Connor, Ruby Lindstrom, Betty Enloe, and Davis Watson. Middle: Angie Olsen, Janet McKenzie, Beverly Ovi, and Lois Jean Baker. Front: Mollie Iler, Jary Nelsen, Marilyn Kintner, and Marilyn Foster. Not pictured: Miss Musternich, Mollie Marshall, Carol Weststrom, and advisor Maurine Clow.

MISS MONTANA COMMITTEE began planning the program and did much work in selection and training of candidates, choosing of judges, publicity, and overall management. The program was discontinued in the midst of work and plans due to its impracticability and expense. The time spent was valued for the experience and stimulated interest in the program.

Back: Armond Pope, Doug Beighie, Dick Hansen, Doug Anderson, and George Bostoulier. Middle: Mrs. Robert Breen, Gay Vannoy, James Yule, Darlene Sorek, and Pat Struss. Front: Hal Eggen, Gwen Grimsen, chairman JoAnn Grundstrom, Lynn Jelinek, and Beverly Terpening.

MISS MONTANA CANDIDATES were trained under the direction of Mrs. Robert Breen and Gay Vannoy. The girls were interviewed by students and faculty members on the basis of talent, personality, and beauty. Even though the pageant was not held the candidates benefited from the training in deportment, poise, and presentation. Other girls also took part in the training sessions. Candidates were: back: Margery Crockett, Diana Murray, Shirley DeFuria, JoAnn Chase, Joanne Easton, Rowena Day, and Dorina Nielsen. Front: Billy McFarland, Anne Jane Caldwell, JoAnn Fairman, Berta Furdal, Verne Jahn, Elizabeth Blummet, and Pat O'Hara.

ANDY COGSWELL, head of the Union, administers the new union union office and activities such as the home study and adult education services, and the correspondence school from his office in the basement of the Law Building.

BERT HANSEN, community development, works directly with Minotians on various community projects. Much of his time is spent editing scripts and directing summer programs throughout the state.

MARY MARGARET COURTNEY, secretary in the home study and adult education office is the "middle man" between correspondent and the extensive student and his instructor and is also "liaison" for the University her post.

BILL SPAHR is involved in a never ending round of tape recordings and negotiations of the public talents of the University. They are distributed to many parts of the state and nation and are in great demand and increased enrollment.

PUBLIC SERVICE DIVISION

HELEN WARDEN, alumni records secretary, keeps records of all alumni, collects their dues, writes much of the news in the alumni news bulletin and allocates semi-annual dues.

EARL MARTELL, director of news and publications service, and TOM ROBERTS, news assistant, write and release all news of University and student activities and write and edit virtually all University non-student publications. The two also obtain photos of campus news events and scenery for publication.

S T U D E N T U N I O N

THE STUDENT UNION EXTERIOR with its bright, antiseptic, modern color scheme is now a fall quarter. The meeting place of students and faculty, the student union was abuzz with activity and people either rushing from meeting to meeting, purchasing at the Book store, relaxing at the Coke store, hanging at the lounge, playing at the game room, or transacting in the business office. The evenings were well filled with club meetings, searching, dancing, and office work. The Student Union Executive board held over the business of the Union, muller over the First House problem, and initiated action for next year's council which will have an elected student president and working committee.

BOOK STORE and Coke store are owned and operated by the Associated Students and are located on the lower floor of the Student Union. The store supplies the students with text books, supplies, novelties, stationery, confections, and athletic supplies. Five students and five full-time people are employed by the store. Back: Gene Carlson, Tom Ritter, Steve Hucks, and Mark Hammerness. Front: Betty Lou Nelson, Helen Aune, and Jay Needham. Not pictured: Shirley Hardy, Elsworth Jones, Don Olson, and Morris McCollum.

COKE STORE Ice lifting with pictures of student personalities and murals helped increase its popularity. This picture shows the noon shift. Nearly forty students work here during the fourteen hour day. The tables are well filled during free class time, between classes and during classes. The staff consists of manager Jack Cuthbert, Harold Mous, Don Halverson, Leon Canner, Marilyn Nielmi, Jerry Donnelly, Ralph Backe, Kathryn Lindeberg, Mrs. Vera Rice, Diana Penwell, Mrs. Sera Housted, Mrs. Mae Brown, and Jim Tutwiler.

STORE BOARD is the elected governing body of the Associated Students Store which includes the fountain, cafeteria and book store. Store board plans the budgets of the store and discusses policies during the luncheon meetings. Standing: Jack Cuthbert, Paul Eschuff, Park Densmore, J. W. Sever, and Morris McCollum. Seated: Jack Thomas, Helen Aune, Jay Needham, and Bib Artz.

STUDENT UNION EXECUTIVE BOARD managed the many sub-committees working in various phases of the building and student activity operation. Members of the committee made a trip to Pullman, Washington, to review plans for a new Union. Back: Barbara Pencey, Dick Biggerstaff, Norman Anderson, Peter Hansen, chairman, Anton Mullinger, and Lou Martin. Front: Vincent Wilson, Carle Van Over, Edward Dugan, Maurine Clow, and Herbert Wunderlich. Not pictured: Kirk Badgley.

NIGHT CLERKS helped make it possible for students to work, dance, march, and enjoy themselves in the Union. They looked after the crowds and helped check seats for dances and public functions. The clerks are Bob Burr, Harry Wassy, Ernest Hagman, and Bill Brackley, not pictured.

BUSINESS OFFICE staff kept track of all the money that went through the 137 organizations, five fraternities, and two societies which have their accounts there. Streams of students received help with their business troubles. One of the purposes of the office is to help new organization officers in planning their financial matters. The picture shows Chuck Teague, fraternity bookkeeper, Mary Nield, supervisor, cashier, bookkeeper, and student adviser, Kirk Badgley, student comptroller, Shirley Guettler, secretary and assistant bookkeeper, Jay Hope, typist, and Bob Dundas, head bookkeeper.

PUBLICATIONS

In Special Recognition

Of all the students interested in the growth of the University, perhaps the one who has done the most to further that growth is photographer, Ted Hewett. Relatively little could be achieved in having a fine university such as ours, if that university did not communicate its worth to the outside world. In this area of publication, Ted, with the reportorial ability of Bill Jones produced a 20-minute, sound-color movie. Except for his materials and an extra reel of the movie for himself, he completed a project, without any reimbursement, which will influence the building of Montana State University for years to come.

THE MONTANA KAIMIN

KAIMIN kept the students and faculty well versed in their activities. The staff and reporting crew had their fingers in every campus pot and knew all the inside dope so that they were felt like magpies in the departments they reported. After four days a week of reporting, editing, and supervising the busy staffers often sought nightcaps after putting the paper to bed.

LEW KEIM, editor, with his staff covered the Field House and Student Union campaigns expertly. His best editorials dealt with the Duke Dangler dance and the proposed legislative bill to combine presidents of all the state higher education components in Montana. Lew drew fire in the letters to the editor column and was equally famous for his replies. Readers found many beautiful examples of horizontal make-up throughout the issue of the student publication. Lew, a Sigma Nu and Silent Sentinel, was also a member of Sigma Delta Chi. Upon exit of the editor, "Party, Inc." completely disappeared.

JOY EAST, business manager, tried to keep the Kaimin on sound financial tracks. She recruited a small advertising staff and bravely faced the threat of outage on her income. Much of her time was spent with Wayne Dyer, adviser Ed Dugan, and pressroom fireman Cloud Lord increasing receipts and cutting down costs. The immigrant from Idaho plenteated between the life of a financier and that of a public relationist. Joy was a member of Mortar Board, Theta Sigma Phi and the Cake Club.

EDWARD DUGAN, Kaimin adviser, reached the eighth postwar year still intact along with his wartime Navy rick. Dugan served as mediator between the "Great Unwashed" and the Kaimin staff. He sometimes wished that the advertising staff would produce as well as his temple car. Besides his feline interests he spends Friday nights at Montana Forum, meets with the Student Union Executive Board, carefully participates in Publications Board, and is the mascot of the journalism bowling team.

BILL JONES, copy editor, associate and member of executive board, his time and work in covering the special events such as the Home Home and J. Q. merger and frequent Central Board disputes. Bill spent much time reporting and writing on campus, "Humorogue," as well as the script for the film, "This is Your University."

FRANK NORBERG, sports editor and associate, graduated at the end of fall semester last year after being sports editor of the West Point weekly. In his column, "This Week," he interpreted the sports field and gave much play in football. A power himself, Frank covered with special attention the boxing events.

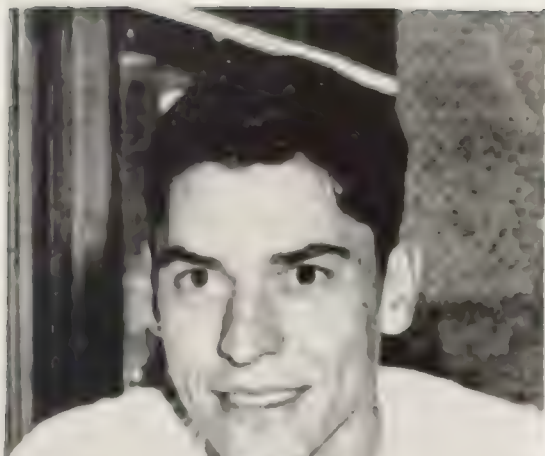

ALLAN ROSE, news editor, associate and holder of the time record for the "paper-to-bed-in-double-quick-time" paper request at the end of last quarter to take a position with the Army. He was replaced by Ray Stewart.

BETTY SMITH, feature editor and associate, oversaw the feature section and was responsible for the abundance of columns. A Tri Delt, she is a former junior sponsor, wrote "The Coed," was editor of the Theta Sig issue and the "Lowtown Daily News."

TED HEWETT, photographer, also took many pictures for the News Service. Another member of "Party Line," Ted, an active independent, took the movie, "This is Your University." He will be getting more than several journalists through photography class.

JACK ZYGMOND, sports editor and reporter, reported Fresh Football during winter quarter. His first writing assignment came in the same year. He was also top basketball and football player in the Intramural League.

CARLA WETZSTEON, assistant news editor and assistant business fall quarter, specialized in forestry, society, and Ted Howard. Carla spent the year Sourcing and typed in as AWS secretary.

RAY MOHOLT, news editor and associate, took over from Alvin Rose winter quarter and was in charge of reported and special events. He was kept busy as editor of the Fresh club "Tremorator," and president of that organization.

PAT EYER, circulation manager, reported a long line of freshmen-eyed and thrived for the early hours of snow and rain. Pat campaigned for an English class to have facilities in parking and dropping books.

THE FRESHMEN KAIMIN in its beginning stages on the press desk with Mary Delorme in the seat and Earl Dutton in the run. Material from the four-colored copy letter goes to the supervisors who put it back on the stone and send them down to the printer. It's as simple as that.

EDITOR HELEN LENHART permits an independent art, let the members be independent in their ideas and opinions. Spending much of her time in the darkroom and in the paths of "Venture," Helen found time to have her sister lessons and her daily fishing. With an unprecedented filing system she kept the staff going, up to where the missing pictures and copy were to be found. Not used to be worried for things gone when the plant editor faced this reality, and with a small group of loyal staff members wound up the year.

BUSINESS MANAGER PEDER HOINESS watched over the Sentinel budget with a sharp eye. "Do you have a reputation," Peder was heard on Sentinel topics, and he found greener pastures in 1953. Alpha Psi, Business Manager. A Sigma Chi and future married man, Peder got in training for budget maintenance. 1952 business became a medium of exchange due to their scarcity, but the crewcutted one kept their wallet tighter than their knees.

ADVERTISING MANAGER BILL CAMPBELL took over the job of looking after the ad money. A Sigma Chi, Bill managed the bringing in of the much needed revenue to the freshman ad staff. Ad sales looked on good until he personally put on a spirited campaign and pulled in the necessary ads to fill up the pages and the plug holes.

1953 SENTINEL

DOUG "DEACON" ANDERSON, hyper-ambitious assistant and Sigma Chi, pulled on Sentinel staff and helped for the first a weekly Sentinel extending and work slow and IRC production. "I'll make them do it," Deacon and the politicians, student journalists, and third year seniors and assisted in most moments of work while waiting out the 1953 edition a year ahead of time.

PAT THOMAS, Sentinel's most consistent associate and the staff in the race for decisions between Sigma Chi, Alpha Psi, and Alpha Phi. Pat managed to apply for the Sentinel's business manager post and took over the responsibility early. During the last part of the year that finished up the senior and faculty sections as well as her own organization section.

BEV HENNE, associate and Traditions, Traditions, Traditions, Kappa and Delta High Interiors. Central court delegate and KAT, had her usual interest in Dick Drake. Between meetings and trips she worked on the Greek, senior and junior section. Known for standing in senior women by Theta Sigma Phi, but never all this for housewife life.

JERRY MURPHY, associate was in charge of the sports section and had part responsibility for the column. Through the experience of Miami took for the sports section came through, Jerry was elected "Wrestler" of 1953 time he is also majority. His reputation with the section, inspired on to the end, although he began resting on his laurels.

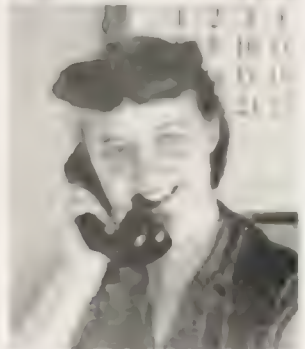

SELDON BECK, chief photographer, acquired the nickname "Sentinel" and came to the school with technical knowledge . . . also smoke bombs and radio transmitters as Sentinel. Eileen. Always up to something, Seldon worked untold hours in the darkroom getting out the final products of negatives. One of the off on fixtures and now cameras, he never failed being the head point of the wrath of the editing and administration.

MARGERY FOOT, the only person at MSU who understood the system of indexing, carried off the grueling task with efficiency and dispatch. While she worked she was never too busy to observe and be amused by the antics of the staff.

MURIEL GRIFFIN is complete and command Sentinel staff member, and everyone else's work and contributed to the cheer and high spirits of the staff. She looked after birthday parties and kept members supplied with goodies. Muriel will take over as an associate next year to become one of the rare female staff editors.

TED HEWETT, photographer, shot for the News Service and the Krumm and turned a majority of pictures to the Sentinel. Ted always saw the campus with the eye of a shutterbug and Carla Wetzmann acted as the birdie.

THE ADVERTISING STAFF

Under the direction of Bill Campbell and with the invaluable shadow of Peter Primmy, started full quarter with a bang in the setting of ads to local establishments and some town merchants. Left to right they are Joan Hattie, Joe Lee Rivers, Lee Little, Dan Wolf, Alice Smith, Ben Mueger, Audrey Richardson, and Mary Ellen Erickson. In front are Bill Campbell, George Bixlerdson, and Joe Harris, and not pictured is Bob Olson.

GEORGIA GEORGE typed and copied helped with the Greek section during her spare moments. Georgia also appeared often in the office to assist in drawing layouts.

CHUCK COOPER contributed to the book for an abstract photographic art which appears in the book. He also filmed the faculty and sports events.

INEZ MYERS, stickler for detail, acted in the initial fall quarter duties. She turned out impressive letters to the engraving, printing, and cover designers.

DEL MULKEY stepped into the office during the last part of the year and wrote off-duty copy in an informal appealing style. Del also did artwork for Venture.

CYRILE VAN DUSSER, Sentinel adviser, dropped in from her office around the corner to see how the book was coming along and to help out with her photographic knowledge, equipment and advice when it was needed.

KAY HUDSON reintroduced the activity pictures and stories for her dorm sections. Another one of the '64 associates Kay, during her fourth quarter, is attending to Sigma ASMSU Vice-president, a post which ordinarily requires at least seven.

LARRY GAUGHAN worked on the fraternity and society section while he was hiding out from his fraternity brothers who have a custom of tying to trees those who have hung their pony. He and Shirley DeFuria, past active in both but not necessarily grade curve sharpening.

CRETA STUCKY wrote copy for the dorm section as well as stories for national magazines. One of most years associates Creta helped in a finger in every part and had her share of campus copy too.

BUSY TYPING but the desks on top of the two new machines are Margery Frost and Rita Thompson. Just Gaughan (not pictured), one of the hardest working freshmen, put in many hours in the same office in the Student Union building. Happily planning the '64 book are Future Student Manager Pat Hawley and Editor Debra Anderson.

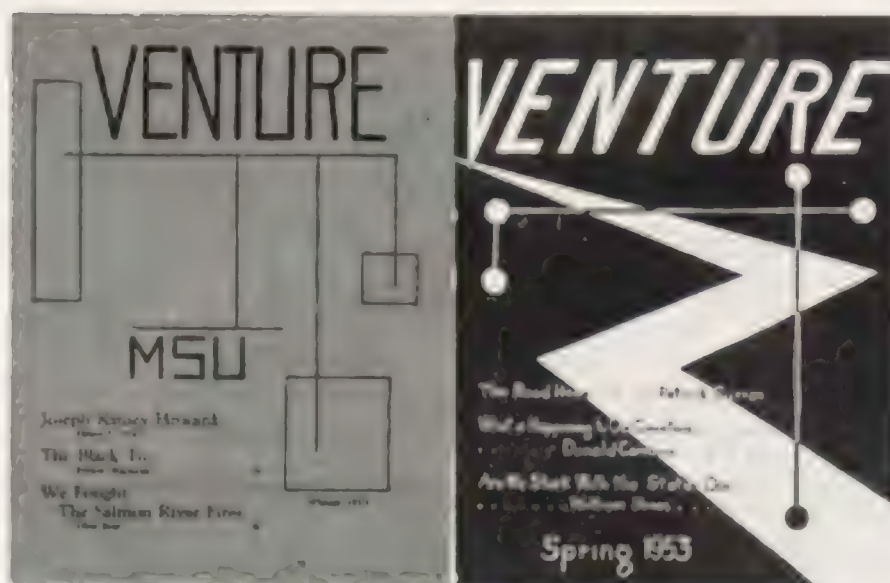

VENTURE

and Administration to Wildlife. Staff: Artistic Editor Henry Lorum, co-art editors Dick Crist and Art Jette, makeup editor Helen Lenhart, editorial board member Bill Jones, and retired Bill Muller. Front desk staff members: Joan Carey, poetry editor Emily Chesmore, business manager Lucretia Chapman, and fiction editor Alice Anne Burt. (Not pictured): Ellen Magnuson, business manager Winnie Dink, Lewis Kees, Jack Spang, Gene Tishoff, Betty Smith, and Beverly Johnson, editorial board. Joan Herbert, Lois LeDuc, Ruth Franz, Kay Smith, Maryanne Beecher, Helen Davis, Darlene Dahlman, Darlene Speck, and Pat O'Hare, advertising, and Edward Freeman, publicity.

THE NEW ALL-SCHOOL MAGAZINE attempted to give students an outlet for their creative abilities in the field of writing and drawing. Allen Jones, one of the students receiving awards for writing, was the recipient of the Davis Memorial prize for his article on the fighting in the winter issue. Ellen Magnuson, full night student from Breese, received the second Davis Memorial prize for her story, "Eag" in the spring issue. Herbert Muller received a Venture award for his last drawing. Advisor Henry Lorum sparked Publication month into making money, organizing and establishing a Venture staff. THE STAFF OF THE YEARBOOK of the Forestry School put out its first year in their Forestry building office. Included in the yearbook are articles of a technical and semi-technical nature written by forestry students, accounts of the year's forestry activities, and a list of students and their addresses. The 332-page book is distributed in the fall to forestry students, alumni, and others interested in the Field of Forestry.

DR. STANLEY HAMILTON replaced Mr. Leslie Hodge who was working on the master's degree at the University of Illinois this year. Dr. Hamilton directed the summer season little theater and the three major MSU productions: "Androcles and the Lion," "Death of a Salesman," and "Night Up the Sky." He received his Ph.D. from the University of Utah and came here from Santa Barbara college. He received his B.A. and M.A. degrees from the University of Iowa and was director of Play Shop at Purdue University. During the war Dr. Hamilton was the entertainment director at Camp Barker, and during Hodge's absence while there went on several tours of Asia with his company.

DAVID WEISS designed the sets ranging from a Roman apartment to a New York apartment apartment for the three Masquer productions this year. He also took a major role as Fennel, a Christian of tremendous strength and a quick temper in the play, "Androcles and the Lion." Weiss who received his M.A. from the University of Wisconsin, specializes in lighting and design. Before coming to MSU last year, he worked with professional summer stock and with a stock show for a season.

ANDROCLES AND THE LION

"ANDROCLES AND THE LION" portrayed the story of Christian martyrdom in the time of ancient Rome. Androcles (Jack Shapira), a renegade gladiator, befriends a lion (Tom Sherlock) in the forest who later protects Androcles from his wife (Pat Keady) and from death in the Roman Coliseum. The group of Christians along with Androcles who face martyrdom represent several kinds of people from the whimpering Spintho (Gordon Rognlien) who wants to die and gets himself thrown all over the stage, to the gigantic Ferrovius (Dave Weiss) who doesn't know his own strength and though he wants to be gentle, yet thrills in overpowering the gladiators. Lavinia (the female lead played by Marge University), a Christian who falls in love with the Roman captain (Frank Arness), provided the romantic interest in the play. Like most humans, the Christians did not fully understand the cause for which they were willing to die. But all ends happily when Androcles meets the lion and they dance through the final scene.

Playing a very human part in a fable play and an obviously unrealistic one, Jack Shapira received special praises. Well deserved, too, were the praises given to Tom Sherlock.

DEATH OF A SALESMAN

"HAVE YOU SEEN HERB CARSON?" was on the lips of every theater-going student during winter quarter. Herb brought to the stage of MSU one of the most human portrayals seen in his characterization of Willy Loman in "Death of a Salesman." Herb and Skip Ragniken (above left), Willy's son, talk of Willy's growing failure as a salesman. Marjorie Lovberg (above right) who "bats him to the buyers" decides Willy in his hotel room in Boston. This scene gives one of the main problems in Willy's life when his oldest son, Biff, tells that he has been unfaithful to his wife. Willy's relatives and friends (bottom) attend Willy's funeral. Left to right: Willy's youngest son, Happy, played by Jack Shapiro; his wife, played by Pat Koob; his oldest son, Biff, played by Tom Sherlock; Willy's best friend, Charlie, played by Tom Kilpatrick, and Charlie's successful son, played by Alan Goddard.

WILLY (HERB CARSON) and his wife (Pat Koob) watch with horror and concern as Willy's wealthy brother, Ben, played by Neil Edstrum, shows Biff (Tom Sherlock) and Happy (Jack Shapira) how to fight in the jungle.

TOM SHERLOCK, Herb Carson and Jack Shapira talk over old times and discuss ways of getting ahead in this world. Credit goes to the stagecraft people and to those who worked on lighting for the show.

Two "girl friends" (Lois LeDuc and Donna Murray) who join Biff and Happy at Willy's dinner wonder about Willy and his reactions when Biff tells Willy that he didn't sell his idea to set himself up in the sporting goods business.

The audience cheered with the cast when the reviews of the play were successful. Gordon Travis completely fixed the scene with his eternal "I could cry." Left to right: Hayes, Lovberg, Shapiro, Travis and Stephens.

"We could have died!" we laughed so hard during "Light Up the Sky." These Phases did an outstanding job with her twirling strut and her loud and rather unsmooth language. Jack Shapiro, Pat Walsh and Maurice Loviers in their third year of the year ten, topped their work with their usual ease and talent. Others in the cast were Ron Richards, Gayle Tappin, Harold Hansen, DIAnne Stephens, Jack Maxwell and Tim Neesham.

LIGHT UP THE SKY

Right: The Shrinkers are in town and in and out of the apartment to add their drunken ramble to an already lively scene. In this scene earlier, Harold Hansen, doesn't seem too ready to accept their cheerful spirits.

UNIVERSITY SYMPHONIC BAND includes: flutes, Judith Hurdon and Joanne Gentry; oboes, John Marvin, Dennis George and Marie Kuchta; English horn, John Marvin; clarinets, Monroe DeFornette, Harold Hursey, Doug Venable, Anne Webb, Lillian Taylor, and Mary Margaret Correll; balsa bouches, James Correll, Thomas Thomas, Marie Duff, Katherine Corbett, Alice Scott, Ann Hodge and Joyce Haverstick; alto clarinet, Cecilia Dillman; bass clarinet, Richard Eckhardt; and Patricia Gray; bassoons, Dan Hurdon and Shirley O'Farrell; saxophones, George Wilson, Ralph Portier, Wilma Jean Dowson, Marlene Allen and Dan Anderson; tenors, Sam Davis, James Hansen, Dan Lindroville, Richard Ely, Wilfred Smith, Jack Lind, Ed Jones and Dan Oyler; trumpets, Wayne Linnell, Jack Newman, Tim Nelson and William Darrow; French horns, Marlene McKinnon, Harold Jones, Robert Lambert, Ed Ely, Krueger, Audrey Burdett, and Beverly Lahn; baritone, Roy Williams; tuba, Robert; Quince Mason and Joanne Gentry; trombones, Jack McFarland, Lee Mulhagen, Gerald Wilson and Roy McFarland; Earl Walker, Dennis Schaefer, Ed Orby, and William Dickinson; percussion, Harold Galt, George Tapp, Betty Anderson and Ruth Buzzetti.

BANDS FLOURISH

AS THE STUDY OF MUSIC becomes more important to MUO, the new University of Music has been formed. The present band culture gave several concerts throughout the year playing compositions ranging from Bach and Wagner to modernists like Frank Skinner and the University's own Paul Abel and Monroe DeFornette. The concert band made several trips around the state, one being with the University and the other to the Butte music festival. The marching band performed for games and half-time entertainment and two World War band concerts at basketball games.

The University of Music band continued, closer to its mission, as an expert music organization for students of music. This band performed new compositions and gave music lessons in conducting. ROTC and other in addition to the performance of the ROTC band made several trips during the summer to the "Garden". Eight outstanding band members were selected to attend the Northwest International Band in Hallington, Washington. They were Monroe DeFornette, Harold Hursey, Judith Hurdon, Richard Eckhardt, Joanne Hansen, Lee Mulhagen, Jack McFarland and Richard Ely. Judith Gray (right) sets up half-time performances for the Marching band. A recipient of degrees from the University of Michigan and Indiana School of Music, Mr. Gray, himself a proficient pianist, is well known as a great conductor in all the Washington and Montana. In 1955 he was elected chairman of the district organization of college band directors.

ORCHESTRA PERFORMS FOR DEDICATION

As far as pure musical development is concerned, the symphony orchestra probably contributes the most at MSU. Besides giving a campus concert each quarter as well as out of town concerts, the orchestra accompanied the choral groups in the Christmas program and in dedications. Coming to their story in the dedication service, the orchestra performed the specially composed "Proud Moments of the State" by Lowden Moley, a native of Butte and a graduate of MSU. They also performed other difficult musical music by current composers including Marvin DeJornette, Robert Sutton and Paul Abel. This concert was taped for QPS network broadcasting. Students in the orchestra as well as other major majors and minor faculty presented weekly recitals. Soloists in this group included concertos Betty DeJornette and Virginia Balkovetz and elements, Marvin DeJornette. A group of 20 selected to sing is known as the Symphonette.

Lucius Andre, conductor, after having an education and also violinist. He has received degrees from Western Michigan College of Education and the University of Washington. As a member of the University team, Mr. Andre performed with fellow Robert Sutton and present Rudolph Wenzel. In one program they presented a piece using guitar music.

A CAPPELLA RETAINS FAME

Extremely known, A Cappella choir again presented a half-hour Christmas program over the Edgemoor network. They sang numbers by such contemporary composers as Cole Porter, Duke Ellington, Quincy Murray, Harold Thompson and Benjamin Britten. A composition by faculty member Paul Abel, "Don Sanctuary," was featured in the program too. Although highly selective, the cappella choir is made up of members from virtually every school and department on campus.

Guest soloists were featured in the Christmas program. They were soprano, Diana Murray; Donald Murray; Marilyn McKinley and Margaret Bridenstine; alto, Patricia Foster and Ruth Palmer; tenors, Robert Hageman, Charles Stone and Gordon Travis; baritones, James Cole and Lowell Burgett. In mid-March the choir presented a benefit program along with the Jubileers and freshmen groups.

The choir was selected as a result of the favorable response to broadcasts throughout the Northwest to the Fairview Music Directors Conference in Bellingham, Washington. Members of the choir are: E. Bravos, M. Bridenstine, A. Buis, L. Burgett, A. Caldwell, J. Cole, C. Collins, L. Colloff, J. Couture, S. Critelli, K. Denny, M. Denny, J. Davis, L. Dunham, R. Ertter, E. Foster, W. Foster, F. Fox, J. French, R. Gibson, N. Gerner, J. Gluck, J. Hageman, R. Hageman, D. Hardisty, B. Herman, J. Howard, R. Hoyem, R. Kaiser, L. Knox, A. Kovatch, L. Larson, J. Larkman, J. Lether, G. Lewis, M. Schessler, S. Slavens, V. Sletten, R. Spiwak, G. Travis, J. Valentine, V. VanHorne, L. Warn and A. Werle.

Donald Lloyd Oakland was singing the Jubileers and freshmen tenors in the Fairview Winter concert and the Fairview Music concert. The Fairview group is from Cornell College in Mt. Vernon, Iowa and Northwestern University.

Well traveled and highly trained, the Jubileers presented 13 programs at ten Montana cities including a performance sponsored by the March of Dimes at the Livingston Civic Center. They were broadcast as far away as Nuremberg, Germany. Besides singing such diverse numbers as "O Eyes of My Beloved" to old time cowboy ballads with guitar accompaniment, the Jubileers also sang four of Gilbert Linkinger's compositions, "Gotta Get Me a Man," "Hey! Hey! You're Playing With Fire," "I'm in Love With an Angel" and "Won't You Be My Valentine." The Jubileers are back, here: Renee, Gordon, Travis, Charles Stone, Robert Rogers, Clifford Cohen, Wayne Feltner, James Cole and Arnold Muggert. Front: Berta Hubbl, Dorcas Newmy, Jeanne Couture, Margaret Brinkman, Ruth Palmer, Patricia Foster, Jane (Joanne) Billy Ann McFarland, Marjorie Lovberg, and Dorcas Murray. Gilbert Linkinger at the piano and Lloyd Gilchrist directing.

JUBILEERS, SEXTET GROW IN POPULARITY

Popular entertainers are these six talented freshmen, who sang at civic organizational meetings in and out of Missoula. They were featured on the Benefit Choral program and at the Missoula High Nite Club dance. They are: standing, Joan Giesek and Betty Rucker; seated, Angeline Kiviers, and Jill Hageman. On floor: Eleanor Fox and Virginia Vasmataz. They are directed by James Cole.

OPERA WORKSHOP KEEPS IN TRIM

THE OPERA workshop group, warming up for a full-scale production next year, traveled about the state presenting excerpts of operas. During dedication week, they presented the "Sailing of Nonesuch," "The Trovatore," and excerpts from "Showboat." Some of the outstanding numbers from "Showboat" were "Make Believe" sung by Jeanne Clature and Robert Hyern; "Bells Upon the Wicked Stage," a comedy number performed by Marlene McKinney and the women's sextet, and Jim Cole's version of "Old Man River."

Workshop members are: Back, Ray Hakubka, Charles Stone, Lewis Kna, Robert Hyern, Jeanne Clature, James Cole, Thomas Nelson, Donald Schessler and Wayne Fokler; middle, Patricia Franer, Ruth Palmer, Robert Sawick, Berta Huebl and Patricia O'Hara; front, Barry Rucker, Hanna Giesek, Alexander Kewitch, Donna Murray, Eleanor Fox, Virginia Venthrone and Bill Hapeman.

VIOLINIST MORA MacKINNON, pianist Pauline Oberg and cellist Gladys Lewis performed classical and semi-classical music at recitals. Occasionally groups like this one and the string quartet entertain or provide background music at teas and at other gatherings.

String Groups Received Little Publicity

BUT PROVIDED MUCH ENJOYMENT

THREE SENIORS and a sophomore make up the music school quartet which played at recitals and other functions. The two violins, Betty Ljung DeJarmette and Virginia Balkovitz both acted as concert mistresses at the various assembly concerts. Stella Corbell acted as principal for the second violin in the orchestra and symphony. Carol Corbell as principal for the cello section. They are (left to right) Virginia Balkovitz, violin, Betty DeJarmette, violin, Carol Corbell, cello, and Stella Corbell, viola.

UTAH STATE 7—MONTANA 0

Under the illuminating lights of Donkeyport Hall, the first Skyline Conference contest of the 1952 football season was played between Utah State and the University of Montana. Although several games were scheduled a week later, many MSU students attended the game to see the Grizzlies actually defeat Utah State in total yards, 173-156, and in first downs, 10-8, only to lose in the all important points department 7-0. While the first half was dominated by Montana, the second half played at more even terms except for the Utah State coach in the third period that was culminated by Col. Roy Campbell's touchdown. The line play of Jim Murray and the punting of Bud Belter greatly impressed the Montana coach as they did throughout the season.

WYOMING 14—MONTANA 0

The University of Wyoming was Montana's next opponent. The Grizzlies traveled east to Laramie to see the work of Grizzly "Big Boy" but the Cowboys didn't live up to the high hopes of this season as proved in the first half of their game. This game played the more integrity of Montana, the importance of its attack. Although strict Grizzly line play stopped Wyoming's two great backs, Boasting and Galters, two pass plays covered the necessary damage. The tackle played a central part in the Grizzlies' defeat.

These two game losses that could have been decided either way with better appointments to Montana, and the abrupt loss of returning tackle, left heads on the shoulders of Coach Chinske. Regardless of the losses the Grizzlies were the first thought of as being the conference "dark horses."

BRIGHAM YOUNG 28—MONTANA 7

Amidst howling wind and celebration, the Grizzlies entertained Brigham Young University for both teams' third conference game. Spectators were treated to a close, though somewhat disappointing game for the first three quarters. The Grizzlies outlasted the Cougars around the goal posts but just couldn't muster enough to cross the final white stripe. Montana outdistanced the boys from Provo by 2-1, but unfortunately the score was a reversal of that. Aside from all the action, the sun wasn't the only bright spot on this day of plummage. The Grizzlies scored Montana's first touchdown of the season with a long pass that four minutes left in the game.

DENVER 7—MONTANA 17

Feelings in the "Mile High" city of Denver must have been low after the reeling Grizzlies somewhat atoned for their embarrassing loss at the previous year to the Pioneers. Montana wasted no time in arriving to their first touchdown as Owen Brist scored on a pass. Denver tied the score at 7-7 in the fourth quarter. At this point Don Gerlinger entered to kick a 20-yard field goal which proved to add the winning points. Minutes later Bob Blum broke loose for 20 yards and the game's final touchdown. Specialist Gerlinger again prevailed.

OREGON 14—MONTANA 14

The Grizzlies flew to Eugene to play the University of Oregon Webfoot as part of the season's first winter game. Big Ben Lord scored the game's first touchdown to put Montana in the lead but threw Oregon's great punter three two-point passes to put the Webfoot out in front 14-7. Late in the last quarter Dick Smith threw Montana's only completed pass of the afternoon to Dean Bratt for the tying touchdown. Seconds later Dick (see paragraph) an attempted field goal. Captain Earl Mann and Jim Murray showed well for Montana along with the night kicking of Ballis.

MONTANA STATE 12—MONTANA 35

Four days after the Grizzlies game the Bulldogs came to invade the Grizzly bear in their winter encounter. At games opening the night Bulldogs scored first hand down a seemingly unorthodox Grizzly scored. By the time the Grizzlies were without pen in by Murdo Campbell who threw two touchdowns scores to Ed Anderson and Fred Mitchell, and ran 55 yards for another score. Dean Bratt advanced his season's scoring total by driving to the Grizzly's end zone. While Ben Antreich scored his part of Granger in the middle of the last halfback Murdo hit an introductory into scoring position.

COLORADO A & M 41—MONTANA 0

Two Colorado Aggies, Don Brant and Alvin Ball, were first with the regular to victory and captain the Bulldogs in a clash at Fort Collins. Bratt and Ballis were the winners of the 20 yards scored by the Grizzlies.

THIS, Montana ended the season with a record of two wins, one tie and seven losses. Started tough with nearly eleven blowouts, in the Grizzlies' season (2) first down to their opponents (40) and were out-rushed by a mere 700 yards to (67). But before Grizzlies' quarter, and the conference with a 40.7 yard average while the Lions and the Grizzlies played with and without, respectively, in rushing offense. Gary Carlson and Mark Campbell earned conference honors as they were eighth and ninth in yard rushing. Campbell also played eighth in the passing department. Olson fifth was the top Grizzlies' player with 30 points to go for a fourth place ranking in the conference.

COMMENCING THE SEASON

With a squad of excellent ability, Coach George Dahlberg viewed the 1955-56 basketball team through a long but successful year of Six Day Four basketball competition. Because the 1955 games will mark the opening of the new Ford arena, this proved to be the last season in which Mustang "true" played in the old Mason Gym. Almost as a historic gesture, the old Men's Gym provided a loyal introduction for the athletes to what's shaping Ford down to a newer step. On that same night the Mustangs beat Utah, Utah State, and one of the Western League Eastern Invitational tournament which featured such teams as LaSalle and N.Y.U., Washington State, Brigham Young, Denver, New Mexico, Colorado A&M, and Montana State. Their last real year spent in the Cowshed at Wyoming.

The Gophers performed at a high degree of efficiency and determination in establishing a season's record of four wins and eleven losses after winning four past years in the Snake Conference with six wins and eight losses. Such individual stars as first teamer Chuck Davis (Most Valuable Player), Jack Luckman (Captain of Best Defense Player Award), Dale Johnson, Jack Coppedge, and the Mustangs are just through graduation.

SKIING

One of the most successful sport groups on campus, the Ski Team set out to prove itself both as representing the University in several contests which included the Tiger Show. While competing in the Denver Invitational, the Ski Team earned a superb first place, and in the Northern Division Invitational at Sandbar, British Columbia, the team earned justifying proof of the highest level skills. In a last meet with our country visitors from Sweden, M20 was crowned by the fine margin of 394 to 387. This money is part of a program for the Mountain Ski Team.

MINOR SPORTS

Bob Dymally, Captain, Dick Moore, Coach, and Dave, Andrew, Morgan, and Fred East.

Under the leadership of Coach Dick Moore, the Morgan Swimming Team completed its two triangular meets and the Olympic Centennial meet. Many records of three men teams swimming at Eastern Tech. Dymally, Dick Moore and Fred East, the Morgan team won second place in the 100 yard freestyle and first place in the 100 yard backstroke. The Morgan team won first place in the 100 yard freestyle and first place in the 100 yard backstroke. The Morgan team won first place in the 100 yard freestyle and first place in the 100 yard backstroke.

M CLUB BOXING TOURNAMENT

Dedicated to Billy Merritt, former MSU student who was killed in Korea, the M Club staged its annual boxing tournament for a capacity crowd. Eager fight fans came in anticipation of exciting bouts. Nearly all were satisfied since most of the boxers were evenly-matched, spirited, and clean fighters. Most pupils (on the east) were from the University, some from Mission High and several from the Wilson boxing contingent. Rex Duffy (They said the boys trophy) and George Tarrant won the Merritt Memorial Award as the tournament outstanding boxer.

Predicted to lose their first meet to Brigham Young by several points, the Grizzlies' trackmen overcame all expectations to finish with 73-08. The victory presented a glimpse of things to come as the grueling Marathon continued throughout the season in northern conditions.

Capt. Harry Adams led the team that day at extending their season, proving themselves as actual postwar performers. By virtue of his early arrival in the vicinity of Don Swell, led out in a great effort by Mark of Chicago A-G-M at the Conference meet at 4:2 seconds, the leading of that time, the jewels showing in freedom and Leonard, and the high jumping of freedom, by Sam. These men, in fact, "transported" good winners with the reliable service of Sam Connor, Mark Buchanan, Mark Kayvala, and Bob Beach produced a first place in the Western District of the Grizzlies and a third place at the Conference meet.

BASEBALL

GENERAL MILBURN PILOTED the Montana baseball team to a top five second place in the western division of Skyline play. In a game in which you have lost and lost as a Skyline competitor, the Fizzlers left their skins with Utah and Brigham Young and won three to two over Utah State. The Skyline team all played outside of Conference play except for a twelve-point tie to live tie with the Bears (number one). Someway would have had rivalry with the Beavers from Beaverton. Beaverton played the latest result of last year's team.

Pindley and Co-Captain Gene Carney played a perfect game against the New York Yankees and turned out with Runs of the Power League.

Commanding the strategic location between New and North halls puts Corbin hall near in a somewhat enviable position especially come spring and the sun bathing season. They have a strong alliance with New hall, probably as a result of sharing meals in "Mrs. Hucker's Gypsy Tea Room" (down stairs). Socially they indulge in Smorgas-burgs, dancing, phoner parties on Sunday evenings and a Christmas formal with New hall. Service wise Corbin functions as the unofficial campus headquarters of Alpha Phi Omega Service Fraternity.

SOUTH HALL

Made up largely of independent upperclassmen who have migrated from campus Junior, but with a liberal sprinkling of freshmen, South Hall managed to be a lot more inside than its neighbors. Aside from their winter quarters with Junior, they are scattered more liberally over campus, particularly with flow and North Hall.

Like their brother and sister freshmen, South hall neophytes attended the round of meetings during Orientation week.

These women coming here with ability and the anticipation to realize that what started with the individual's name that there is the campus. This year's trip will be active in time to simply realize that they wanted to see and experience the big things and see the big things. They organized the "Department of the" and elected for Peter as their first year of contact. They also had a meeting, one into exchange (meeting in other) to the most recent of persons (which includes parties and party parties). From the first night, knowing of "the" (the) as the "the" they had a busy time to spend time off toward college education.

Dr. and Mrs. McFarland and Dr. Clow, always attentive to freshmen, attended orientation week programs too.

SYNADELPHIC

The first breath of spring brought a house Aber day that left even the shrubs spotless.

With a name synonymous with working together, and the circle of pine as a symbol of their co-operative order, the Synadelphics spent another successful year, tucked in the shadow of Corbin Hall.

GREEKS

Activity wise, the Alpha Phi's captured five places in Spur, with PAT O'HARE serving as president of that organization. Other Spurs were PHYLLIS KIND, SHIRLEY DEFORTH, MICKEY McKINLEY and JANET HOWARD. As vice-president of ASMSU, JAMIE BRENNAN climaxed her active college career. Through winning the Northwest debate tournament, CATHY DOHERTY made her way to Hawaii, and another debate tourney, MAXINE BELLIS served as president of Panhellenic council, GLORIA TINSETH successfully co-chairmanned the WSSF drive, BOBETTE REEDER was elected freshman vice-president, and the Alpha Phi's boast of seven Aquamaids. Pledge ANNAMAE KOVATCH became the Moonlight Girl of Phi Sigma Kappa. Activity minded WINIFRED DINN and PEG TOFTE both served as North Hall junior sponsors; Winny also was initiated into Theta Sigma Phi and Peg served as WAA treasurer. PAT THOMAS conscientiously spent much of her time as an associate editor on the 1953 Sentinel, Mu Phi, International Relations Club, band and twirlers, and Student Religious Council found Alpha Phi's in their ranks.

Every day the lovely MOLLY IKEN was readily recognized both by Alpha Phi's and the Associated Women students throughout the year.

ALPHA PHI

At their first General Assembly meeting, the Alpha Phi's are left with something that is a true Alpha Phi's own thing.

DELTA

The house on University avenue was a picture of perpetual motion as the girls of Delta Delta Delta moved right into the campus spotlight. The big boomer of the house was MARIE AUSTIN, elected Sweetheart of Sigma Chi, who also found time for ROTC Sponsor Corps. Seven other Tri Delts donned the uniforms of ROTC, too. Teaming together the Tri Delts took first place on their Homecoming float. CARYLE WICKES, JEAN'NE SHREEVE, PAULINE OBERG and GLADYS LEWIS made their way into Mortar Board, with Pauline also serving as president of a cappella choir, and on Kappa Tau. KENETTE KENISON took the gavel for WAA, while MARVIS CORIN took the responsibility of vice-president. BETTY SMITH served as associate-editor on the Kaimin, and Bacteriology club claimed PAT SCHAMMEL and JERRY ST. ONGE.

Delta Gamma enjoyed a year of profitable activity and service under the leadership of GWEN FLIGHTNER and MARILYN McCONNELL. The DG's combined talents with the Sigma Nu's to win the trophy for the best act in the Aber Day variety show. The DG's came through to take the trophies for scholarship, the Booster parade and Songfest. The sophomores chose two DG's to lead them through the year; they were JOAN BACHMAN, vice-president, and ARIENE WERLE, secretary. ANN FOWLER efficiently ran the outside entertainment committee, while JOAN BROOKS took over as an associate editor of the Kaimin. DG proudly boasted of nine Spurs during the year, two of which belonged to ALD. DAVIS WATSON served as AWS secretary, as well as community service chairman for SCA. PAT KOOB, CAROL MURRAY, MARGE LOVBERG and DONNA MURRAY were initiated into Masquers, while Pat also became a member of Masquers Royale. Marge and Donna were also in Jubileers. MYRNA DOLVEN, CAROL COUGHLAN, and ANNE FOWLER breezed through the year as North Hall sponsors.

Down on Gerald avenue at the Theta abode, the girls capitalized on their many abilities to breeze through another successful year. A variety of campus affairs claimed the time of many. EILEEN POLK enthusiastically served as co-ed colonel of ROTC, and president of Aquamaids. BEV HENNE, who was associate editor of the Sentinel, Central Board delegate and Traditions Board chairman, was honored at Matrix Table as "Outstanding Senior Girl." Graduate scholarships galore were offered the popular ASMSU secretary, MARY JOAN TASCHER. A house of royalty, KAY HUDSON was Homecoming Queen, and BERTA HUEBL, Mardi Gras queen. ROSEMARY ANDERSON, a Kappa Tau, was chosen president of Mortar Board, and MARILYN FOSTER became president of AWS. MARILYN KINTNER capably served as vice-president of AWS. Saucy MARILYN NICHOL was elected by her classmates as senior vice-president. However, the sisters took their minds off campus activities long enough to plan some highly successful social affairs.

The Kappa chapter of the School of Nursing was active in many areas of campus life.

The Kappas skillfully divided their time among campus activities, awards, and fun hours. As a group the Kappas won the swimming trophy, and shared second place honors with the Thetas on their Homecoming float. A Spur and Aquamaid. GERENE WILSON also served as secretary of the junior class. Another secretary was NAN HUBBARD of WAA, who also was elected vice-president of AWS. Pledge MARY HELEN PEMBERTON took many freshman honors by becoming freshman treasurer and president of North Hall. Sigma Phi Epsilon honored BARBARA BERG by choosing her "Queen of Hearts," and JO HATTLE became Miss Photogenic. Included in the membership of Kappa Tau and Mortar Board was enthusiastic MARLENE CARRIG. JO GRUNDSTROM successfully maneuvered the Miss Montana program until the franchise was dropped this spring.

Sigma Kappa ingenuity paid off when the girls were presented with the Traditions Board trophy for the most cleverly decorated house at Interscholastic. In the course of the year many other events were celebrated with typical enthusiasm. On campus, the girls starred in activities. JARY NELSEN, who held the gavel for PEMM Club, also was a North Hall junior sponsor and AWS vice-president. Both PAT WALKER and REBA TURNQUIST were chosen for Mortar Board. JANE VALENTINE, who marked among her activities vice-president of Mu Phi, was selected as "Outstanding Junior Girl" by Matrix Table. The Panhellenic presidency was capably taken over by KAM SUE MANN. ROXANA WARREN and REBA TURNQUIST both maintained the high scholarship demanded for membership in Kappa Tau. Roxana was also president of Radio Guild. Both BEVERLY PRAETZ and AUDREY LINSCHIED were admitted to the ranks of Masquers, with Audrey also being a Masquer Royale. Bev co-chairmanned the AWS handbook. Sigma Kappas and their dates dug around in closets and came out with some unique costumes for their "Suppressed Desire" spring function.

ALPHA TAU OMEGA

Alpha Tau Omega president
WAYNE HANSON guided the Tau to another successful year.

ATO's could be found in almost any phase of campus activity. Many a friendly argument was waged in the house between the Young Brawls and the Young Dancers.

No paddle, and the second annual Help Week program highlighted the achievements of the boys from 1414 Maurice avenue. The Seventh Annual dinner dance, the best function each year, highlighted, along with two firesides, the social end of fall quarter. Winter quarter the Prohibition Daze party, with all the brothers and their dates rigged in gay 20's costumes, stole the show socially. Spring quarter found the Taus off to the Toolies for functions, picnics and exchange dinners. Organizationally speaking, the ATO's spread themselves thin, having members in Kappa Tau, Student Christian association, Sintonia, rifle, track and ski teams, as well as the National Pharmaceutical association. BILL RIFE, who was for the second year an outstanding track man on the Grizzly squad, managed to carry his Maltese cross to the finish line, breaking records in the mile and two mile. HAL UTSOND is considered by many to be the prospect to take Bill's place. Hal chucked the javeline 192 feet 1 inch to take top honors in Skyline meets.

Getting off to an early start the Phi Delt began the year with the campus's biggest pledge class. Pledging was followed by the Hawaiian party and the spring Installation Ball. In the social swing of things, the Phi Delt hung more pins this year than any previous year. Not to be outdone, the Phi Delt brothers claim eight of the varsity football team, and three men on basketball. EDDIE ANDERSON and GENE CARLSON captained the basketball and baseball teams. To an already overcrowded mantle, the Phi Delt added eight more trophies for intramural sports. Mention must be given of the Phi Delt contribution to the WSSF clothing drive, chairmanned by GEORGE BOIFEUILLET, which netted four thousand pounds of clothing. HOLLY HOLLINGER actively engaged in campus affairs as chairman of the student Union committee, and NORM ANDERSON was elected as Junior Central Board delegate. JIM LARCOMBE maneuvered the Sigma Delta Chi's to a successful year.

A great time was enjoyed here
whenever these three sets Phi Sigs got together. Good times could always be found coming out from the Phi Sig room.

PHI SIGMA KAPPA

The fun-loving Phi Sigs will long remember this past year as a very successful one in every way. Even though Uncle Sam and members of the opposite sex struck a telling blow on house membership, it was, to say the least, a memorable year. To show they didn't feel completely contemptible toward the "jocks" and their activities, the Phi Sigs claimed FLOYD SMITH of the Grizzlies record breaking relay team, and TOM RITTER, the "fish-boy" on the swimming team. Socially, the Phi Sigs outdid themselves. The Coronation Ball, the Barn Dance, the PJ party, weekend picnic on Flathead, and the famous Coffee Dan were a few of the "greater" Phi Sig functions. Large sized wheels were TOM SHERLOCK, senior president, and DALE FORBES and JACK BELLAND, graduating with honors in law and education respectively. The Phi Sigs found time to complete plans for their new home, scheduled for construction this summer. Location? Who would think of leaving 1011 Gerald? Man, they're surrounded by three sororities.

SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON

Sigma Alpha Epsilon strove to participate and excel in the scholastic, cultural, philanthropic and social aspects of campus life. Its success in scholarship was shown by its ranking first among fraternities four quarters in a row. Another first came in the homecoming float which they shared with the Tri Delta. Two intramural trophies for football and golf were added to the SAE mantle. Among SAE's notable in activities were DON GERLINGER, PEK president, JACK COPPEDGE and DAVE LEUTHOLD of Central Board, PETE DENSMORE, tennis captain, and JIM MURRAY, "outstanding senior football player." The Sig Alph's came through the Aber Day elections with three out of four class presidents. DON ERICKSON, BOB GRIFFIN, and GEORGE PAUL served as freshman, sophomore, and junior prexies respectively. Publicity-travel chairman, three Bear Paws, PARK DENSMORE of store board and twenty varsity lettermen were claimed by the SAE's.

SIGMA CHI

Campus men of Sigma Chi were HUGH DEMERS, president of Bear Paw, and PEDER HOINESS, who successfully managed two important positions, chairman of the New Student Union committee, and business manager of the Sentinel. DONALD CLARK succeeds BOB GRAVES as the new M Club president. DICK SHADOAN, one of the most efficient and busiest men on campus, served as president of Silent Sentinel, Kappa Tau, and was on Traditions Board. DEACON ANDERSON, IRC proxy, finished as Sentinel business manager and was a '53 Sentinel associate editor. The Sigs claimed the campus king this year. "STINGER" STONG was voted King of Mardi Gras, and BOB PEDEN became North Hall's first Peppermint Prince. Proud of their twins, LEE and BOB WILLIAMS, who won many Skyline golfing honors, are the Sigs, as they are of their many athletes, both varsity and intramural. Memories of many fine parties filled the minds of members, who best remembered such events as the Sweetheart Ball and the newly founded Sigma Chi weekend at Seeley.

The White Star boys on Gerald avenue added versatility on campus and a booming social season to this school year. Central Board predominated with Sigma Nu's BOB NEWLIN, BILL JONES, WARD SHANAHAN and JIM ABBOTT. At the helm of student government, and leading the CB meetings were ASMSU president DAN LAMBROS, and business manager DON CAMERON. The Kaimin was again edited by a Sigma Nu, LEW KEIM, who was capably aided by associates BILL JONES and RAY MOHOLT. Sigma Nu also claimed five Silent Sentinels, and ten Bear Paws, plus a mighty crew of varsity lettermen. Loud cheers resounded down Gerald Avenue from the Snake house when the brothers learned of their first place in the song fest. Cadet Colonel BOB ABBOTT gave the orders for ROTC, while brother DICK DALLAS took over the Stan Kenton appearance on campus. GIB LEIBINGER, the music master of the campus, is also a noted Sigma Nu. Putting their best foot forward in the social whirl, the Sigma Nu's outdid themselves at their annual Pigge dinner dance. Another successful party was their winter quarter gangster dance.

Dudley Lewis, member of the Executive Board, was appointed from the University the end of winter quarter. He immediately accepted a position with an oil company.

Under the cold stare of big brothers DUD DEAN and CHUCK TEAGUE, the SPE proletariat plodded through another pleasant year with adequate diversion provided by such affairs as the dinner dance, the Queen of Hearts Ball, and the fabulous Bowery Ball, all planned by social chairman DICK DEWALT. Local sports pages praised DON HALVERSON, Grizzly half-miler. MATT MATTSON gave the orders as Cadet Colonel for Air ROTC. Yell king GENE HOYT served fall quarter as Imperial Potentate of Kams and Dregs. BOB HOYEM took an active part in all University music circles, and JAMES CARRELL, JAMES DURADO, and PAUL ROHNKE participated in chorus and Sintonia, band and orchestra. President of the Lutheran Student Association was SPE RAY WOEPPEL.

Education In the Early-Day Mining Camps

Four years after the first school in the Montana territory was opened at Butte, and three years after the first regular public school was opened in Virginia City, pioneer teachers in 1867 were providing their students with an education not only worthy of the eighth grade.

However, any student who completed their training through the eighth grade was considered to have a high school education.

Pupils entering in school were assigned to the eighth grade and graduated from the first grade—just the reverse of the present system.

Under graduation laws the best grade students were required to take examinations to obtain a certificate. These were given in the home and the cost of the delivery was set at $6. All questions in the test had to be accurately answered before the applicant qualified for the certificate.

Because early-day schools did not have a common textbook of any kind, study in was varied. The Compendium of Arithmetic—that was the title of the mathematics book—however, being from the west to establish regular courses of study. It was not until 1881 that a uniform textbook law was passed by the state legislature, and not until 1889 that a uniform course of study was made compulsory.

A list of those who attended the early-day schools and who later became prominent in public life in Montana were Austin Grayley, Chicago attorney at one time; Dr. Lacey Sutherland of Great Falls; Judge Lewis L. O'Leary, State Supreme Court; and Judge Lee Wood, former associate justice of the high court (1900).

MONTANA PAY ROLL PRODUCTS

We're both selling the same thing—SERVICE

Tell me if we seem to be presumptuous . . . but we are both selling service. Montana State University is selling education as a service and we are selling energy. Both are orders of service.

You at the University have been at your jobs all these years, more than a half century, but we've been operating more than 40 years, so feel able to make a few observations on service.

If we only say we do think the University is doing it better than we than it used to . . .

You're bringing your services to the people in their own communities to a greater extent. As a result cities and towns a long way from Missoula have learned to appreciate what you're doing and what your problems are by awarding Learning University awards and individuals. We've been there that from the beginning, as it's the nature of our business. We believe the people appreciate what we're doing now. We're serving them.

Commitment is the 1950 equivalent of MISO. Why not meet your lot with Montana tomorrow?

SOME EXTRA PAGES SOME EXTRA PICTURES

"Our loss is your gain." (Belt and Bow, 1953 A-12) is a sense of unity. A few less will provide us with a few unexpected pages back here and there we know you don't exchange photographs, the same is filled with some extra pictures.

More Girls King and queen conductors (Belt and Bow, P. J. Coles, P.D. John Darden, D.G. Matt McFarland, S.P. Alex Pledge, O.D. Bill Strong, S.K. and Grace Darnowski, Syn- dicate, Middle, Helen Rodriguez, North, Van Olsen, P.S.K. Dorothy LaZarus, K.K.G. Wanda Latta, A.T.O. John Eriksen, K.A.T. and Annie Huggert, S.N. From Lucy Butcher, S.K. Chuck Peterson, South, Beverly Tison, A.P. Nick Wood, T.X. at Bert's House, New.

The Virginia City players attracted a large crowd (above) with their comedies, melodramas "Rattle Your Bustle," and with the "Gate of Hay Variety Show," which featured skits and dances in a Gay Nineties cabaret.

SIDELIGHTS

One of MSU's newer organizations, bacteriology club redecorated the bacteriology department in the Natural Science Building. The club painted desks, cupboards, and laboratory tables in the media room, the main classroom, the advanced room and office of the department. The club was organized as an outgrowth of a bacteriology seminar that met at the Rocky Mountain laboratory each week in November. The purpose of the club is to promote interest among bacteriology majors in the department and to attract high school graduates. Members of the club are women who have completed two quarters of bacteriology or the equivalent. They are (shown back) Pat Schommel, Carol Churchill, Victor Vilk, Francis Powers, Ed Coleman, Fred, Dick Raymond, Jerry St. Onge, Gwen Dickson, and John Jutila.

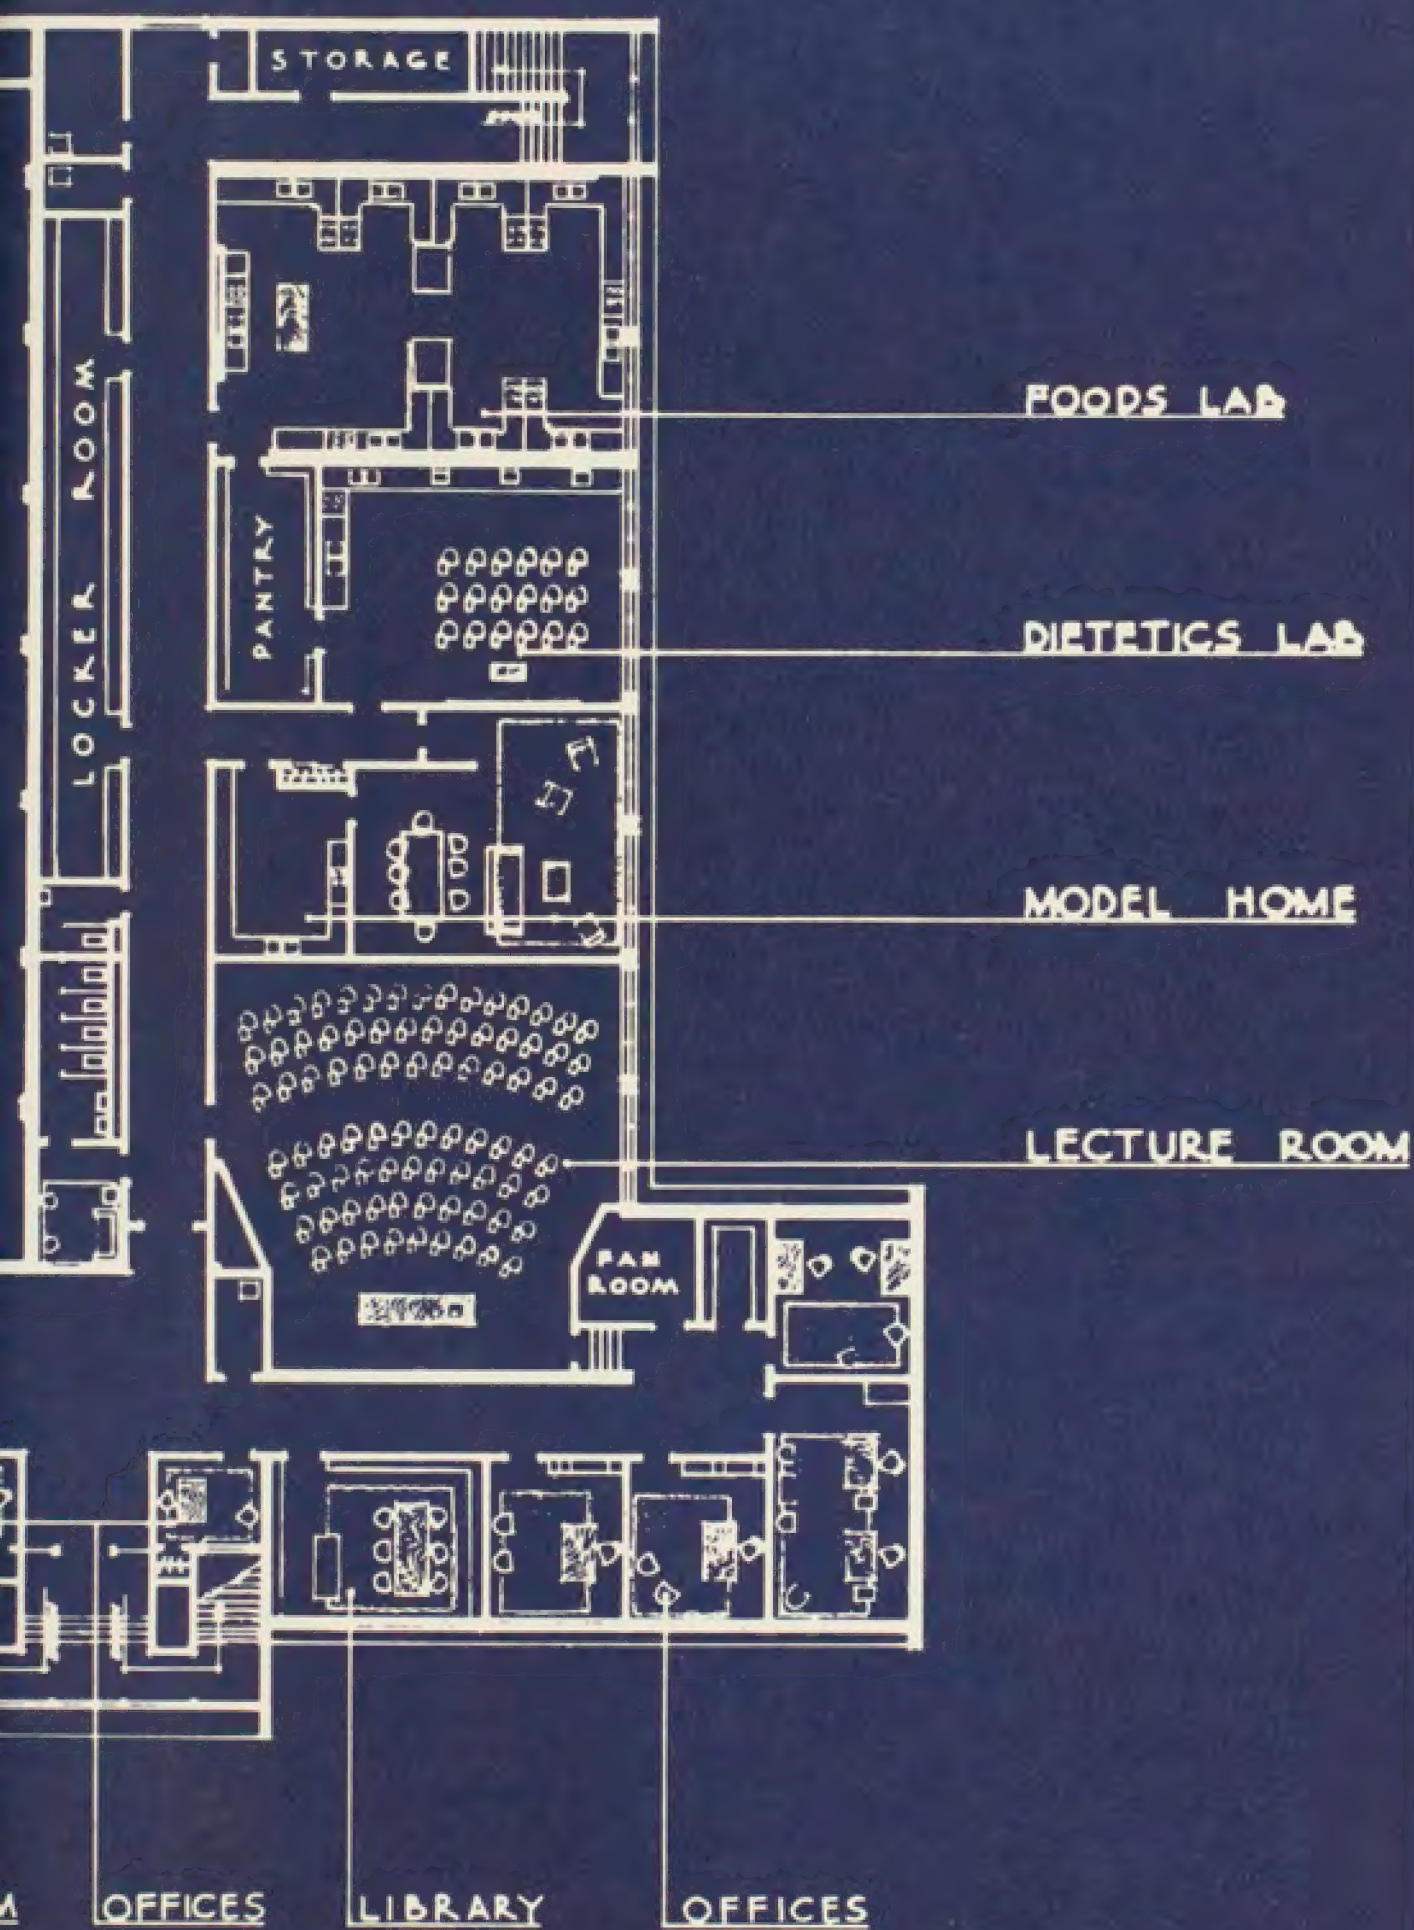

In the fall Women's M club tapped six members of the annual Santa party. They were Marion Nelson, Sue Kuehn, Jerry Nelson, Mary Carr, Ben York and Maxine Hightower. The Women's Athletic association entertained about 100 people, including President and Mrs. McFarland, Kirk Baughen, Dr. Maurice Elmer, Danny Lundgren and Mollie Her. Women's M also were given to Mr. Baughen, Mrs. Danny, Mrs. McFarland and Mrs. Peggy All. At the buffet table (above) are Pat Wendel, Peg Little, Darrell Sue, Ross Turnquist, and WAA president Beryl Handford.
